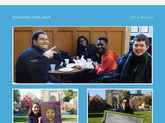
First-Generation Low-Income at Yale

November 17th, 2018 Vol. 1, Issue 13



Welcome Back!

Happy Tuesday everyone!

Welcome back from break! We hope you were able to spend some time with friends and family – or with us if you had to stay around campus! Now that we're back, we hope that you are able to fill the ground running as we have less than a month left in the fall semester. We have a lot of events, so be sure to check your email or your calendar for updates – coming back with us after a LONG PSLI endeavoured by showing up on email below!

This is a crime-ridden neighborhood in which the Crimes Time series has concluded but we still have a couple more events lined up, so take a few moments to check them out! And good luck with your final assignments and midterms – all get done!

UNEXPECTED FINANCIAL HARDSHIP SUPPORT | Yale College

Gaudeamus is a new tool for you all to respond faster to non-time-compressed financial need. Students in an emergency will only require Gaudeamus handling a few hours per day (find patrons on here to work daily. Funds granted through Bursar/Fin-aid: cover unexpected expenses like emergency medical expenses, travel for family emergencies, unexpected expenses for medical care, etc.

In addition, you can request Mentor Clothing Grants if you are from an area that specifically does not get basic snow or low temperatures. Winter clothes can be expensive. Apply for the grant, and if approved, come see one of our ambassadors to get some guidance on what to try to wear!

Student Ambassador Office Hours

Do you need help picking a club to join, homework help, or just want to spill tea? Our Student Ambassadors will be holding office hours throughout the week at various locations around campus (presented with snacks and drinks: VeltContact Us!
