First-Generation Low-Income at Yale

March 6th, 2019 | Vol. 1, Issue 3

Apply to be an FGLI Ambassador!

(and Happy Spring Break!)

We almost During Power People some know and shits enter line point week. We not where today and spring time is upon us. As midterms kick into full gear, we hope you can take some time to enjoy some warmth from the weather and from friends before midterms.

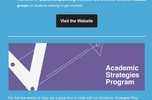
We want to give a huge thank you to everyone who was able to make it to last Thursday's College Tea with Anthony Jack. Our conversation with Dr. Jack was one of the most lively we have had. We discussed his book, The Privileged Poor: How Elite Colleges are Failing Disadvantaged Students, Writing the Wrongs we discussed work Dr. Jack's over FGLI upbringing, the structural-class antibodies that he calls "the cultural-class boundaries" that FGLI students face, and his own personal experiences as a FGLI first-generation. We learned that poor from these differences, and advice that Dr. Jack has for current FGLI students here at Yale.

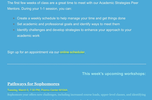
"Be unapologetically who."

Lastly, while we have a relatively quiet week ahead of us in terms of programming, we do want to encourage you all to FGLI students to apply to be an FGLI Ambassador! for next academic year (2019-2020) More information can be found below, and feel free to reach out to the FGLI Ambassadors for more information and advice!

FGLI Students: You can still grab your Tote copy of Anthony Jack's The Privileged Poor!

Simply email Jessica or come to the Yale College Dean's Office and we'll hook you up with what being FGLI means to you. It's a read you don't want to miss!





The FGLI Career Closet

CONTINUING THROUGH SUMMER AT WINTERSESSION | TALK ONLINE

Here an interview for an internship or job coming up? Trying to impress potential employers at a networking event?

We are happy to announce the inaugural launch of the Yale University Career Closet! In partnership with the Yale College Dean's Office, the Asian Americans Cultural Center at Yale (AACC) has developed the Career Closet as a system of professional clothing for students that need attire for interviews, receptions, and all other formal events. Portions are available between (which includes dress, blouses, pants, suits, dresses, shoes, ties, and accessories) and Wednesday, March 13th, 2019 (Spring Break). Clothing is organized based on both traditional categories for a complete professional wardrobe and essential students are free to browse from any and all of our available options.

Moss's clothing: XXL

Women's clothing: XXL

For those interested in interviewing clothing from the Career Closet, please fill out the following Google form (linked below) and we will be in touch with you shortly.

Large clothing items are available on a first-come, first-served basis. We will be keeping track of our inventory. We will be updating the inventory as we bring back of more recent items.

Email: yale.career.closet@gmail.com or www.yale.edu/aacc/ for more information.

Career Closet Request Form

Safety Net

CONTINUING THROUGH SUMMER AT WINTERSESSION | TALK ONLINE

Safety Net is a new weekly peer-led discussion group for students at undergraduate American campus! Students in the campus to talk about their experiences feeling "out of place" in the classroom, and how they can learn to talk. Finally grounded through Safety Net could cover unexpected responses like unexpected student preoccupations, issues that handle conversations, unanticipated academic expectations, and more.

In addition, you can request Women Clothing Closet if you are from an area that typically does not get heavy snow or has temperatures. Winter clothes are for organizers. Apply for the years, and if approved, come over and visit ambassadors to get some guidance on what to do by step-step!

Tuesday May 28th: Being a Minority in STEM (6:30p - 7:30p) Sterling Law Building - Lounge (in the area of Kenny Hall in Sterling Law Building) RSVP

Opportunities

2019-2020 FGLI Ambassadors

Want to be involved in the work of improving the FGLI community here at Yale? Apply to be an FGLI Ambassador for the 2019-2020 Academic Year! You will be a part of the core under the Yale College Dean's Office that is focused on campaigns initiatives which has the goal of promoting academic, social, and emotional support to FGLI students at Yale through collaborations with other student groups and the core projects. FGLI Ambassadors work closely with the Woodbridge Fellow under the FGLI and the Posses Center to realize the goals of the campaigns and initiatives and to provide a "voice" for FGLI students collaboratively with the first-generation and/or low-income committees and students is required.

Applications will be accepted until Monday, March 18th at 11:59 PM. Applicants need to hold an position with AID ID # (CEEE) PHP-Web to read the full job description, and PHP-Web to learn more about the current Ambassadors.

Apply Here!

Yale College First-Year Summer Research Fellowship in the Sciences and Engineering

(Be current first years)

The First-Year Summer Research Fellowship program provides support for a summer research experience under the supervision of a Yale faculty member. Applicants are expected to have laid an foundation in the sciences and engineering, and to have a strong interest in research. Fellows receive research stipend with substantial mentorship and scholarly work. Stipend expected of $4,000 is provided for 10 weeks minimum of summer research under the supervision of a Yale University faculty member.

Applications are due March 1, 2019. Click here to learn more.

Copyright © 2018 FGLI-University Initiative at Yale, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:
FGLI-University Initiative at Yale
Yale College Dean's Office
Woodbridge Hall, Room 102
New Haven, CT 06511

Center for Teaching and Learning
301 Sterling Hall
New Haven, CT 06511

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.